Nicaragua barre a El Salvador

Ciudad Quesada, 20 de noviembre 2019.- Nicaragua venció 3-0 (25-19, 25-13, 25-10) a El Salvador, en el inicio de la tercera jornada del XIII Campeonato Centroamericano Sub 18 de voleibol femenino.

Las nicaragüense contaron con una inspirada Roselyn Tobie quien aportó 19 puntos, 13 en ataque y seis en servicio, por 9 de su compañera Norma Brenes y 8 de Francesca Medrano. En tanto, por El Salvador su capitana Geannine Velásquez aportó 9 puntos.

El ataque de Nicaragua fue mejor 39-17, con 4-1 en bloqueo y 10-3 en servicio, con 22 errores de las salvadoreñas y 21 de las nicaragüenses.

Claudia Noguera, entrenadora de Nicaragua: “Es importante para Nicaragua este triunfo, si conseguimos las victorias en los siguientes juegos podemos tener oportunidad para estar en el podium, todo es que las niñas se concentren y den el máximo en cada juego. Vamos a tratar de trabajar con ellas, hoy salieron más relajadas, es importante tener un buen ánimo y hoy salieron muy animadas”.

Sady López, entrenador de El Salvador: “Hoy se cometieron menos errores, pero las niñas no logran mantener la concentración. Así ocurrió ayer y hoy repetimos, que comenzamos bien y no logran mantener la concentración y después no podemos recuperarnos. Cuando los contrarios empiezan a sumar puntos se pagan, es difícil, no se puede mantener un ritmo de juego”.

Nicaragua sweeps to El Salvador

Ciudad Quesada, November 20, 2019.- Nicaragua defeated El Salvador 3-0 (25-19, 25-13, 25-10), at the start of the third day of the 13th U18 Central American Women's Volleyball Championship.

The Nicaraguans had an inspired Roselyn Tobie who contributed 19 points, 13 in attack and six in service, for 9 of her partner Norma Brenes and 8 of Francesca Medrano. Meanwhile, for El Salvador his captain Geannine Velásquez contributed 9 points.

Nicaragua's attack was better 39-17, with 4-1 in block and 10-3 in service, with 22 errors by Salvadorans and 21 by Nicaraguans.

Claudia Noguera, coach of Nicaragua: “This victory is important for Nicaragua, if we get the victories in the following games we can have the opportunity to be on the podium, everything is for the girls to concentrate and give the maximum in each game. We will try to work with them, today they came out more relaxed, it is important to have a good mood and today they came out very lively. ”

Sady López, coach of El Salvador: “Today we made fewer mistakes, but the girls can't keep their concentration. So it happened yesterday and today we repeat, that we started well and fail to stay focused and then we cannot recover. When the opponents start to score points they get paid, it's difficult, you can't keep up with the game. ”

Honduras contundente ante Guatemala

Ciudad Quesada, 21 de noviembre 2019.- Honduras doblegó de forma contundente a Guatemala en tres set 3-0 (25-14, 25-23, 25-13) para sumar su segundo triunfo del XIII Campeonato Centroamericano Sub 18 de voleibol femenino.

Genesis Oyuela comandó a Honduras con 14 puntos, de ellos 12 en ataque, mientras Shantte Siliezar aportó 10 y Dazly Durán 8, seis de ellos por servicios que marcaron el rumbo del tercer set.

Después que Honduras dominó el primer set, en el segundo las acciones se mantuvieron igualadas incluso hasta el punto 23, pero las hondureñas lograron cerrar fuerte para llevarse el set.

En el tercero, con Durán en el servicio y logrando seis “aces”, Honduras tomó una ventaja de 10-0 que resultó insuperable para Guatemala.

Diana Barillas e Ingrid Almaraz con 9 puntos fueron las mejores de Guatemala, que se vio superada en ataque 18-30, en bloqueo 5-6 y en servicio 9-10.

Caterine Leiva, entrenadora de Honduras: “Trabajamos la parte mental y emocional con ellas ayer, después de dos derrota los ánimos estaban bajos y teníamos que recuperar la confianza. Teníamos que salir fuerte, salir a ganar, porque necesitábamos ese triunfo para tener aspiraciones, nos concentramos en el saque, fue lo mejor que pudimos hacer, y la disciplina y obediencia táctica”.

David Aldana, entrenador de Guatemala: “Ellas (Honduras) tienen a una jugadora muy buena que hizo la diferencia (Durán), con esa desventaja en el tercer set no pudimos reaccionar. Nos quedan dos partidos bien complicados, ante Belice y Costa Rica, tienen jugadoras muy altas y fuertes en el servicio, trataremos de cerrar lo mejor que podamos”.

Blunt Honduras beats 3-0 Guatemala

Ciudad Quesada, November 21, 2019.- Honduras strongly beat Guatemala in three sets 3-0 (25-14, 25-23, 25-13) to add its second triumph of the XIII Central American U18 Women's Volleyball Championship.

Genesis Oyuela commanded Honduras with 14 points, of them 12 in attack, while Shantte Siliezar contributed 10 and Dazly Durán with 8, six of them per serve that marked the course of the third set.

After Honduras dominated the first set, in the second the actions remained even even to point 23, but the Hondurans managed to close strong to take the set.

In the third, with Durán in the service, Honduras took a 10-0 advantage that was unsurpassed, achieving six “aces” and in the remaining serves, getting the Guatemalan reception into trouble.

Diana Barillas and Ingrid Almaraz with 9 points were the best in Guatemala, which was overcome in attack 18-30, block 5-6 and service 9-10.

Caterine Leiva, coach of Honduras: “We worked mentally and emotionally with them yesterday, after two defeat the spirits were low and we had to regain confidence. We had to go out strong, go out to win, because we needed that triumph to have aspirations, we focused on the serve, it was the best we could do, and tactical discipline and obedience.”

David Aldana, coach of Guatemala: “They (Honduras) have a very good player who made the difference (Durán), with that disadvantage in the third set we could not react. We have two very complicated games, before Belize and Costa Rica, they have very tall and strong players in the service, we will try to close the best we can.

Costa Rica se mantiene invicto al superar 3-1 a Belice

Ciudad Quesada, 21 de noviembre 2019.- Costa Rica mantuvo su invicto en tres partidos al vencer 3-1 (26-24, 17-25, 25-19, 25-15) a Belice (2-1), en el cierre de la tercera jornada del XIII Campeonato Centroamericano Sub 18 de voleibol femenino.

Belice igualó dos veces en el primer set, perdiendo 8-16, luego 20-24, pero no pudo rematar en el cierre a pesar de empatar a 24.

En el segundo set, tomó ventaja de cuatro puntos que fue aumentando a medida que Gareth Bruce se metía en el juego, ya que en el primer set estuvo descontrolada tanto en el ataque como en servicio.

Para el tercero y cuarto set, Costa Rica tomó la delantera y no cedió ante las presiones de Belice, que vieron limitadas sus opciones a Bruce y a Khaya Gordon.

Belice tuvo un dominio impresionante en ataque 41-27, pero fue superado 10-5 en bloqueo y 8-7 en servicio. Bruce logró 21 puntos y Gordon 13, mientras por Costa Rica, Angelica Rodríguez terminó con 15 y Nicole Mata con 9. Belice cometió 48 errores, por 30 de Costa Rica.

Henry Rodríguez, entrenador de Costa Rica: “Teníamos una buena ventaja, pero las muchachas se confiaron, creyeron que ya estaba y no era así, al final logramos cerrar y eso fue anímicamente muy bueno. Seguimos a puro empuje, gracias a Dios tenemos jugadoras suplentes que entraron a hacer la diferencia, por cualquier posición juegan y entraron a hacer lo que hemos entrenado, porque todas estas situaciones ya se han entrenado”.

José Fontés, entrenador de Belice: “Sabíamos que el partido era intenso ante Costa Rica porque estábamos invictos y podíamos definir el torneo. La presión pudo más que algunas jugadoras principales, ellas deben comprender que es necesario que jugar estos partidos con el corazón. La estrategia del primer set no se cumplió que era atacar con el servicio, quisimos reaccionar, pero no fue suficiente. No tengo otra excusa, si un país quiere resultados, las jugadoras de más experiencia tienen que asumir su responsabilidad”.

Costa Rica remains undefeated by beating Belize 3-1

Ciudad Quesada, November 21, 2019.- Costa Rica remained undefeated in three games by beating 3-1 (26-24, 17-25, 25-19, 25-15) to Belize (2-1), at the close of the third day of the XIII U18 Central American Women's Volleyball Championship.

Belize traced twice in the first set, first losing 8-16, then 20-24, but could not finish in the close despite tying to 24.

In the second set, he took advantage of four points that was increasing as Gareth Bruce got into the game, since in the first set he was out of control both in the attack and in service.

For the third and fourth set, Costa Rica took the lead and did not give in to Belize pressures, which were limited to Bruce and Khaya Gordon.

Belize had an impressive dominance in attack 41-27, but was overcome 10-5 in block and 8-7 in service. Bruce scored 21 points and Gordon 13, while for Costa Rica Angelica Rodríguez finished with 15 and Nicole Mata with 9. Belize committed 48 errors, for 30 of Costa Rica.

Henry Rodríguez, coach of Costa Rica: "We had a good advantage, but the girls trusted each other, they thought it was already there and it wasn't like that, in the end we managed to close and that was very good. We continue to push, thank God we have substitute players who came to make a difference, for whatever position they play and they went on to do what we have trained, because all these situations have already been trained. "

José Fontés, coach of Belize: "We knew that the game was intense against Costa Rica because we were undefeated and could define the tournament. The pressure could more than some leading players, they must understand that it is necessary to play these games with the heart. The strategy of the first set was not fulfilled that was to attack with the service, we wanted to react, but it was not enough. I have no other excuse, if a country wants results, the most experienced players have to assume their responsibility. "
